

The Hurst family of Farmington Hills during the 2017 Motor City Comic Con at Novi's Suburban Collection Showplace on May 20.

Justin Twist (Spidey) of Troy; Gwen Stacy (Spinneret) of Pennsylvania.

A man dressed as Barf from the movie "Spaceballs."

Daryl Aspery of Garden City is Zorro, the Gay Blade.

Motor City Comic Con: The portraits

With more than 55,000 fans passing through Motor City Comic Con last weekend, Free Press photographer Romain Blanquart worked to capture images of some of the event's most enthusiastic and distinctively dressed attendees. Using just his phone camera, he shot more than 50 cosplay portraits, some of the best which are shown here. Check out even more in the gallery at freep.com/entertainment.

Amoura Branch, 8, of Royal Oak is Dorothy from "The Wizard of Oz."

Brianna Bennett of Hillsdale is Catwoman.

Ally Bowen, 16 of Belleville was Hiro Hamada of "Big Hero 6."

Megan Foley of Madison Heights came as Hell Boy.

A woman pulled off Poison Ivy during the convention in Novi.

Emilie O'Grady of East Lansing honored Princess Leia.

This man chose to be Col. Nicholas Joseph Fury.

Hillary Nash was Cruella de Vil and husband Michael Nash was as Negan.

This man made a perfect Joker.

Maria Boggan, left, is Shiva and Rob Boggan is King Ezekiel.